Prayer by Senator Ware:

Let us pray . . .
Give us thy strength this day, Lord
That where we go no danger daunt us . . .
That no selfishness overcome us . . .
That we shall find no burden greater
Than we can bear . . .
Give us thy strength, Lord, so that
We have courage equal to this day
Of care. Amen.

Sir:

I am directed to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed with amendments—

By Senator Myers and others—

SB 491—A bill to be entitled An act relating to professional and occupational regulation; amending chapter 455, Florida Statutes, to provide that no person shall be disqualified from applying for examination to practice any occupation or profession regulated by an administrative board defined under chapter 455, solely because he is not a United States citizen; providing that said administrative boards may require proof of intention to become a citizen; providing for adjudication of complaints of violation of this act; repealing all statutes or parts of statutes inconsistent with this act; providing an effective date.

Amendment 1

On page 2, line 4, after the period insert the following: A notarized declaration of intention to become a citizen, in lieu of a formal declaration of intention to become a citizen, shall be sufficient proof of the applicant's intention to become a citizen.

On page 2, line 5, insert the following:
Section 2. No board as defined in section 455.01 shall require citizenship as a condition for licensure if an applicant has otherwise successfully met the requirements for licensure. Provided, however, that any board listed in section 455.01 which requires a declaration of intention to become a citizen as a condition to apply for examination may, by board action, revoke a license issued to a non-citizen if it becomes apparent to the board that the non-citizen does not intend to become a citizen. and renumber subsequent sections

Amendment 3

In the title on page 1, line 15, after the semicolon insert the following: providing that no board shall require citizenship as a condition for licensure if an applicant has otherwise successfully met the requirements for licensure;

—and requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

*Respectfully,
ALLEN MORRIS
Clerk, House of Representatives*

On motions by Senator Myers, the Senate concurred in House amendments 1, 2 and 3 to SB 491.

The President presiding.

The Honorable Jerry Thomas
President of the Senate

March 22, 1972

Sir:

I am directed to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed with amendments—

By the Committee on Health, Welfare and Institutions—

CS for SB 498—A bill to be entitled An act relating to the public health; creating the Health Maintenance Organization Act; setting forth legislative intent, findings and purposes; establishing definitions; requiring health and maintenance organizations to obtain a charter; providing for the application, issuance and revocation of said charter; providing for notice, hearing and review; providing for an administrative fine in lieu of revocation; providing for examination by the department; providing for fees; providing for construction and relationship to other laws; setting forth minimum requirements for health maintenance contracts; providing procedures for change in charter; providing for acceptable payments from third parties; providing a prohibition of certain words in the name of the organization; providing procedures in event of emergency care; providing for investment of funds; providing for the promulgation of rules and regulations; providing a penalty; providing a severability clause; providing an effective date.

Amendment 1

On page 2, line 3, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Section 1. Short title.—This act shall be known as the “health maintenance organization act.”

Section 2. Legislative intent.—It is the intent of this act to aid in the improvement of the health care delivery system by providing encouragement and support in the planning and development of health maintenance organizations, particularly with regard to improving the health of the citizens of this state. Pursuant to this objective, it is the intent of the legislature that the department of insurance and the department of health and rehabilitative services do everything in their power to encourage the use of imaginative innovations which will expedite the rapid development of health maintenance organizations in this state, and that the said departments exercise every precaution to assure flexibility in rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this act so as to not restrict or in any manner discourage the orderly development of such organizations. While it is the intent of this act to provide an opportunity for the development of health maintenance organizations there is no intention to impair the present system of delivery of health services.

Section 3. Definitions.—As used in this act, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

- (1) "Department" means the department of insurance.
- (2) "Departments" mean the department of insurance and the department of health and rehabilitative services.
- (3) "Health maintenance organization" means an organization authorized under this act to:
 - (a) Provide, either directly or through arrangements with others, health care services to persons enrolled with such organization on a prepaid per capita or prepaid aggregate fixed sum basis;
 - (b) Provide, either directly or through arrangements with other persons, corporations, institutions, associations or entities, all those health care services which subscribers might reasonably require in order to be maintained in good health. Minimum services shall include but not be limited to emergency care, inpatient hospital and physician care, ambulatory diagnostic treatment, and preventive health care services;
 - (c) Provide physician services directly through physicians, who are either employees or partners, of such organization, or under arrangements with a physician or any group of physicians.
 - (4) "Health care services" means services, medical equipment and supplies furnished by a provider which may include, but are not limited to, medical, surgical and dental care; psychological, optometric, optic, podiatric, nursing, physical therapy services and pharmaceutical services; health education, preventative medical, rehabilitative and home health services; inpatient and outpatient hospital services, extended care, nursing home care, convalescent institutional care, laboratory and ambulance services; appliances, drugs, medicines and supplies; and any other care, service or treatment of disease, the correction of defects or the maintenance of the physical and mental well-being of human beings.
 - (5) "Health maintenance contract" means a contract with a subscriber under which health care services are provided by a health maintenance organization to a subscriber on a prepaid basis.
 - (6) "Provider" means any physician, hospital, pharmacy, or other institution, organization, or person furnishing health care services.
 - (7) "Subscriber" means an individual who has contracted, or on whose behalf a contract has been entered into, with a health maintenance organization for health care services.
 - (8) The provisions of this act shall not apply to those organizations providing the services defined in this section which have been engaged in providing said services for a period of twenty-five (25) years or more.

Section 4. Health maintenance organization; establishment and licensure.—

- (1) Corporations organized or qualified to do business under the laws of this state may establish, maintain and operate such organizations.
- (2) No health maintenance organization shall issue contracts to subscribers until it has been licensed and, authorized by the department to do so. Application for a license shall be made on forms to be supplied by the department containing such information as the departments deem necessary.
- (3) Each application shall be accompanied by copies of the following documents, duly certified to by the sponsor of the proposed health maintenance organization:

(a) A copy of the health maintenance organization's articles of incorporation, any amendments thereto and all bylaws with any amendments thereto;

(b) Proposed contracts to be issued to subscribers showing the benefits to which they are entitled, together with a table of the rates charged, or proposed to be charged, to subscribers for each form of such contract;

(c) The address of the principal office for transacting business and a list of the names, addresses, and official positions of the persons who are to be responsible for the conduct of the health maintenance organization's affairs, including all members of the board of directors, board of trustees, executive committee, or other governing board or committee. Any person who is responsible in whole or in part for the conduct of the health maintenance organization's affairs, including all members of the board of directors, board of trustees, executive committee or other governing body or committee, shall fully disclose the extent and nature of any contracts or arrangements between such persons and the health maintenance organization, including any possible conflicts of interest;

(d) A statement generally describing the health maintenance organization, its operations, the location of facilities at which health care services will be regularly available to subscribers, the type of health personnel providing health care services, and the number of personnel in each type;

(e) A current statement of net worth and a pro-forma operating statement.

(4) The department shall issue a license to any health maintenance organization filing an application in compliance with the provisions of this act, upon payment of the fees prescribed in section 6 of this act and upon being satisfied, that:

(a) The applicant has been organized for the purpose of establishing, maintaining and operating a health maintenance organization.

(b) The applicant has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the department of health and rehabilitative services proof of ability to provide health care services without regard to health or age and that health care services are available and accessible to all its subscribers promptly and appropriately, and in a manner which assures continuity of care.

(c) The proposed contracts between the health maintenance organization and its subscribers are in compliance with section (5) of this act.

(d) Based upon accounting procedures acceptable to it, the proposed health care delivery plan is actuarially sound and that the health maintenance organization has adequate working capital. This requirement may be satisfied by a finding of the department that the health maintenance organization has made acceptable arrangements to provide all health care services offered. Any such plan shall be deemed approved thirty (30) days after submission unless disapproved by the department or unless additional time is required by the department to obtain further information.

(e) The department of health and rehabilitative services has certified that the health maintenance organization has provided through contract or otherwise for review of its medical facilities and services.

(f) The organization will be operated in compliance with provisions of chapters 458, 459, 460, 461, 464, 465 and 466, Florida Statutes.

Section 5. Contracts.—

(1) A licensed health maintenance organization may contract for or secure the rendering of services with licensed or duly authorized providers for its subscribers. All professional personnel providing health care services on behalf of a health maintenance organization shall be duly licensed or authorized to practice in this state.

(2) The rates charged by any health maintenance organization to its subscribers shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. The department may define, by rule and regulation what constitutes excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory, and may require whatever information it deems necessary to determine that a rate or proposed rate meets the requirements of this subsection.

(3) If a health maintenance organization desires to amend any contract with its subscribers or desires to change any rate charged therefor it may do so, upon filing with the department any such proposed amended contracts or changes in rates, together with sufficient information to substantiate the same. Any such proposed change shall be effective immediately subject to not being disapproved by the department within thirty (30) days from date of filing.

Section 6. Fees to be paid for filing applications and annual reports.—The fee for filing:

(1) An application for an original license shall be one hundred and fifty dollars ($150).

(2) Each annual report shall be one hundred and fifty dollars ($150).

Monies collected pursuant to this act shall be distributed equally to the department of health and rehabilitative services and the department of insurance.

Section 7. Revocation of license.—The department may revoke any license, if it finds that:

(1) The organization is operating in contravention of its articles of incorporation or any amendment thereto, of its code of regulations and bylaws, or of its health care service plan;

(2) The department of health and rehabilitative services has certified that the organization is unable to fulfill its contractual obligations to its subscribers;

(3) The department of health and rehabilitative services has certified that the organization is not providing quality health care services; or is not operating in compliance with provisions of chapters 458, 459, 460, 461, 464, 465 and 466, Florida Statutes;

(4) The existing contracts and rates are excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory;

(5) Based upon accounting procedures acceptable to the department, the plan is no longer actuarially sound or that the health maintenance organization does not have adequate working capital.

(6) The health maintenance organization has advertised or merchandised or attempted to merchandise its services in such a manner as to misrepresent its services or capacity for service or has engaged in deceptive, misleading, or unfair practices;

(7) The organization has failed to comply with any of the provisions of this act.

Section 8. Administrative fine in lieu of revocation.—The department may, in lieu of revocation, levy an administrative penalty in an amount not less than $1,000 nor more than $10,000, and may augment this penalty by an amount equal to the sum that the department calculates to be the damages suffered by subscribers or other members of the public.

Section 9. Appeal.—The department shall establish an appeal procedure in accordance with chapter 120, Florida Statutes. At any time after all administrative appeals have been exhausted, the applicant may seek relief in the circuit court having jurisdiction in the geographic area of the proposed health maintenance organization.

Section 10. Annual reports.—Every health maintenance organization subject to the provisions of this act shall annually on or before the first day of March, file in the office of the departments a statement verified by at least two of the corporate officers of said health maintenance organization showing its condition on the 31st day of December then next preceding, which shall be in such form and shall contain such matters as the departments shall prescribe.

Section 11. Examination and inspection.—The department of health and rehabilitative services or the department of insurance, any examiner of either department or any other person whom either department appoints shall have the power of visitation and examination into the affairs of any licensed health maintenance organization. The department of health and rehabilitative services and the department of insurance jointly or separately are authorized to examine all of the books, records, papers and documents of the health maintenance organization, and may summon and qualify witnesses under oath and examine the officers, agents and employees or other persons in relation to the affairs, transactions and condition of the health maintenance organization; provided, however, medical records of individuals and medical records of physicians providing services under contract to the health maintenance organization, shall not be subject to such examination, although they may be subject to subpoena by court order upon a showing of good cause. The cost of an examination of a health maintenance organization by the department or the department of health and rehabilitative services shall be paid by the organization.

Section 12. Rehabilitation and liquidation.—Licensed health maintenance organizations shall be subject to the provisions of section 631, Florida Statutes.

Section 13. Liability of officers.—Any person who is an officer or director of a health maintenance organization shall be fully and personally liable and accountable for any violations of any provisions of this act, by himself or by persons under his control. Provided, however, it is not intended through this legislation to modify the existing law of Florida regarding personal or corporate liability for negligence or medical malpractice.

Section 14. Limitation on use of terminology.—

(1) No health maintenance organization licensed in this state shall use in its name, contracts, or literature any of the words "insurance," "casualty," "surety," "mutual," or any words descriptive of the insurance, casualty, or surety business.

(2) No person, group or organization not licensed under this act shall use in its name, contracts or literature the words "health maintenance organization."

Section 15. Open enrollment.—

(1) The requirement of an open enrollment period is intended to provide the benefits of health maintenance organizations to the general public and in no way restrict a health maintenance organization from establishing administrative procedures that protect the quality of service to its subscribers or the financial condition of such an organization. However, during periods of open enrollment the organization shall not establish any administrative procedure that arbitrarily restricts enrollment.

(2) Health maintenance organizations shall have an open enrollment period of at least one month not later than the fifteenth (15) month from its first month of operation. After the initial fifteen (15) months of operation a health maintenance organization shall have an annual open enrollment period of at least one (1) month during which it accepts up to the limits of its capacity and without restrictions, individuals in the order in which they apply for enrollment.

(3) During annual periods of open enrollment the health maintenance organization shall afford the opportunity of membership to new subscribers in an amount equal to ten (10) per cent of the total number of subscribers at the end of the previous calendar year.

Section 16. Contracts issued by health maintenance organizations.—Contracts issued by health maintenance organizations as defined in this chapter shall not be subject to the requirements of sections 627.0602, 627.0603, 627.0604, 627.06041, Florida Statutes. Health Maintenance organizations licensed under this act shall not be subject to any of the provisions of Chapter 641, Florida Statutes.

Section 17. Acceptable payments.—Each health maintenance organization subject to this act may accept from governmental agencies, or from private agencies, corporations, associations, groups, or individuals, payments covering all or part of the contracts entered into between the health maintenance organization and its subscribers.

Section 18. Powers of the department of health and rehabilitative services and the department of insurance.—

(1) The department of health and rehabilitative services and the department of insurance may promulgate rules and regulations as needed to carry out the provisions of this act. Provided, however, that the departments shall not promulgate rules and regulations that unduly restrict the orderly development of health maintenance organizations.

(2) The department shall collect and make available in a single volume all health maintenance organization rules and regulations promulgated by the departments.

Section 19. Penalty.—Any person operating a health maintenance organization without first being licensed by the department shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in sections 775.082 or 775.083, Florida Statutes.

Section 20. Severability.—If any section of this act, or any part thereof, shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgement shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder of any other section or part thereof.

Section 21. Effective date.—This act shall take effect July 1, 1972.

EXECUTIVE BUSINESS

By direction of the President, the Secretary read the following communication and Executive Order:

March 23, 1972

REGISTERED—RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED

Honorable L. E. Hatcher
Post Office Box 227
Cross City, Florida

Dear Mr. Hatcher:

Pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 69-277, Laws of Florida, we are sending you by registered mail, Executive Order of Suspension dated March 22, 1972.

With kind regards, I remain

Cordially,
RICHARD (DICK) STONE
Secretary of State

By (Mrs.) Dorothy W. Glisson
Director
Division of Elections

EXECUTIVE ORDER OF SUSPENSION

WHEREAS, L. E. Hatcher is presently serving as a member of the Board of County Commissioners of Dixie County, and

WHEREAS, on the 24th day of February, 1972, an Information was filed by the State Attorney in the Circuit Court of the Third Judicial Circuit in and for Dixie County, Florida, charging L. E. Hatcher with the crime of Accepting Unauthorized Compensation, and

WHEREAS, based upon a report of the State Attorney of the Third Judicial Circuit, the Honorable William Randall Slaughter, and an investigation conducted by this office, it appears that it is in the best interest of the citizens of the State of Florida that L. E. Hatcher be immediately suspended from the public office which he now holds, upon the constitutional grounds hereinafter set forth;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, REUBIN O'D. ASKEW, Governor of the State of Florida, pursuant to the Constitution and laws of the State of Florida, do hereby find, determine and, for the purposes of Section 112.41, Florida Statutes, allege and specify:

(A) That L. E. Hatcher is, and at all times material hereto was, a member of the Board of County Commissioners, Dixie County, Florida.

(B) That L. E. Hatcher is, and at all times material hereto was, a "county officer" within the meaning of Section 7, Article IV, Florida Constitution, 1968, to-wit: Member, Board of County Commissioners, Dixie County, Florida.

(C) That on October 28, 1971, in Dixie County, Florida, L. E. Hatcher, did accept the sum of $1,000, good and lawful money from William Moore, with the oral agreement or understanding from the said L. E. Hatcher, that he (L. E. Hatcher) acting as a member of the Board of County Commissioners of Dixie County, would assure the approval by the Board of County Commissioners of Dixie County, of a plan or plat for a proposed subdivision in which William Moore had an interest, in violation of §838.06, Florida Statutes.

(D) That the aforesaid fact constitutes the offense of malfeasance, misfeasance, or neglect of duty as such offenses are used in Section 7(a) of Article IV, Florida Constitution.

(E) That the interest of the residents of Dixie County, Florida, and the citizens of the State of Florida can best be served by the immediate suspension of L. E. Hatcher from the public office which he now holds.

BEING FULLY ADVISED IN THE PREMISES, and in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the State of Florida, the following executive order is hereby promulgated, effective at 5 o'clock p.m. on March 23, 1972.

1. That L. E. Hatcher be, and he is hereby suspended as and from the public office which he now holds, to-wit: Member, Board of County Commissioners, Dixie County, Florida.

2. That L. E. Hatcher be, and he is hereby prohibited from performing any official act, duty or function of any public office, from receiving any pay or allowances, and from being entitled to any of the emoluments or privileges of public office during the period of this suspension, which period shall be from the effective date hereof, until further executive order, or as provided by law.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Florida to be affixed at Tallahassee, the Capitol, this 22nd day of March, 1972.

Reubin O'D. Askew
Governor

ATTEST:
Richard (Dick) Stone
Secretary of State

—which was referred to the Select Committee on Executive Suspensions.

—having met, and after full inquiry, hereby tenders as the recommendation of this Committee that the Senate do advise and consent, and approve the aforesaid appointments made by the Governor.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert M. Haverfield,
Chairman
William D. Barrow,
Vice Chairman
Lew Brantley

Philip Lewis
David McClain
John Ware
Charles Weber

On motions by Senator Haverfield, the report of the committee was adopted, the rules were waived and the Senate in open session advised and consented to and approved the aforesaid appointments made by the Governor, as contained and set forth in the foregoing report. The vote was:

Yeas—36

Mr. President	Childers	Horne	Ott
Arnold	Ducker	Johnson (34th)	Poston
Barron	Fincher	Karl	Reuter
Barrow	Gong	Knopke	Sayler
Beaufort	Graham	Lane	Scarborough

Nays—None

By unanimous consent, Senator Boyd was recorded as voting yea.

Notice having been given pursuant to Rule 4.14, Senator Weissenborn requested unanimous consent to take up SB 1115 out of order. Senator Hollahan objected.

On motion by Senator Boyd the rules were waived and the following bill was introduced:

By the Committee on Reapportionment and Redistricting—

SB 1291—A bill to be entitled An act relating to establishment of congressional districts; amending section 8.01, Florida Statutes, providing for the division of the state into fifteen (15) congressional districts; amending section 8.04, Florida Statutes, providing effective dates; prescribing effect of redistricting on offices of board or council members appointed in reference to existing districts; adopting U.S. Census terms for use in such redistricting; providing for omitted areas; and providing severability of invalid portions.

—which was read the first time by title and placed on the calendar without reference.

On motion by Senator Boyd, by two-thirds vote SB 1291 was read the second time by title.

Senator Boyd moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Section 2. Section 8.04, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

8.04 Effective dates.—Candidates for the office of congressman for each of the districts provided in Section 8.01 shall be nominated in 1972, as provided by law, and a congressman shall be elected from each such district at the general election to be held in 1972. For all other purposes, Section 8.01 shall take effect at the expiration of the term of office of the congressmen now serving from the state.

Section 3. Chapter 8, Florida Statutes, is amended by adding the following section to read:

8.—A change in the division of the state into congressional districts shall not vacate or otherwise affect the office of any member of a board or council who is serving at the time such change is effected and who was appointed by reference to a congressional district as it existed immediately prior to the effective date of such change. Any such member serving on such date shall continue to represent the congressional district in which he resides until the expiration of his term. A vacancy shall exist in such board or council in any congressional district in which no existing member resides and the same shall be filled as provided by applicable law. If two or more such members reside in a single congressional district as constituted after such change, each shall be entitled to serve until the expiration of his term.

Section 4. In accordance with Article X, Section 8(a), State Constitution, the decennial census of 1970 is recognized as the official census of the state for the purposes of this law; and, the designation 'CCD' shall mean 'Census County Division'; the designation 'ED' shall mean 'Enumeration District'; the word 'Tract' shall mean 'Census Tract'; and the designation 'BG' shall mean 'Block Group'; and the terms 'Census County Division', 'Enumeration District', 'Census Tract', and 'Block Group' shall have the same meaning and describe the same geographical boundaries as provided in the Bureau of the Census Reports of the United States Decennial Census of 1970 for the State of Florida; Block Groups are subdivisions of Census Tracts as defined on census metropolitan maps which differentiate Block Groups by the first digit of the block numbers assigned to city blocks within each Tract; the population within the above described geographical census units are the population figures contained in the corrected official 1970 Decennial Census master enumeration district list.

Section 5. Any portion of the state of Florida which is not stated herein as being included in any district described in this law but which is entirely surrounded by a district shall be deemed to be included within that district. Any portion of the state which is not included in any district described in this law and which is not entirely surrounded by a district shall be included within that district contiguous to such portion which contains the least population per congressman according to the U. S. Decennial Census of 1970.

Section 6. In the event any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this law or any congressional district established herein shall be declared, determined to be or adjudged invalid or unconstitutional, such adjudication shall in no manner affect the other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, or phrases of this law, or any other districts established herein, which shall remain of full force and effect, as if the section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or district so declared, determined to be or adjudged invalid or unconstitutional were not originally a part hereof. The legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the remaining parts of this law as if it had known that such part or parts hereof would be declared, determined to be or adjudged invalid or unconstitutional.

The hour of adjournment having arrived, a point of order was called and the Senate recessed at 12:00 noon to reconvene at 2:00 p.m.

Section 2. Section 8.04, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

8.04 Effective dates.—Candidates for the office of congressman for each of the districts provided in Section 8.01 shall be nominated in 1972, as provided by law, and a congressman shall be elected from each such district at the general election to be held in 1972. For all other purposes, Section 8.01 shall take effect at the expiration of the term of office of the congressmen now serving from the state.

Section 3. Chapter 8, Florida Statutes, is amended by adding the following section to read:

8.—A change in the division of the state into congressional districts shall not vacate or otherwise affect the office of any member of a board or council who is serving at the time such change is effected and who was appointed by reference to a congressional district as it existed immediately prior to the effective date of such change. Any such member serving on such date shall continue to represent the congressional district in which he resides until the expiration of his term. A vacancy shall exist in such board or council in any congressional district in which no existing member resides and the same shall be filled as provided by applicable law. If two or more such members reside in a single congressional district as constituted after such change, each shall be entitled to serve until the expiration of his term.

Section 4. In accordance with Article X, Section 8(a), State Constitution, the decennial census of 1970 is recognized as the official census of the state for the purposes of this law; and, the designation 'CCD' shall mean 'Census County Division'; the designation 'ED' shall mean 'Enumeration District'; the word 'Tract' shall mean 'Census Tract'; and the designation 'BG' shall mean 'Block Group'; and the terms 'Census County Division', 'Enumeration District', 'Census Tract', and 'Block Group' shall have the same meaning and describe the same geographical boundaries as provided in the Bureau of the Census Reports of the United States Decennial Census of 1970 for the State of Florida; Block Groups are subdivisions of Census Tracts as defined on census metropolitan maps which differentiate Block Groups by the first digit of the block numbers assigned to city blocks within each Tract; the population within the above described geographical census units are the population figures contained in the corrected official 1970 Decennial Census master enumeration district list.

Section 5. Any portion of the state of Florida which is not stated herein as being included in any district described in this law but which is entirely surrounded by a district shall be deemed to be included within that district. Any portion of the state which is not included in any district described in this law and which is not entirely surrounded by a district shall be included within that district contiguous to such portion which contains the least population per congressman according to the U. S. Decennial Census of 1970.

Section 6. In the event any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this law or any congressional district established herein shall be declared, determined to be or adjudged invalid or unconstitutional, such adjudication shall in no manner affect the other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, or phrases of this law, or any other districts established herein, which shall remain of full force and effect, as if the section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or district so declared, determined to be or adjudged invalid or unconstitutional were not originally a part hereof. The legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the remaining parts of this law as if it had known that such part or parts hereof would be declared, determined to be or adjudged invalid or unconstitutional.
